‘Over the last few years, the women and men of Iren have given great proof of their professionalism and managerial skills,’ declared Luca Dal Fabbro, Executive Chairman of the Group. ‘We have found ourselves having to compensate twice, for different reasons, for the lack of a CEO, demonstrating with facts that the strategy outlined for the Group’s businesses is effective and that the management team is cohesive and driven by the challenging objectives we have set ourselves. The choice of a manager such as Gianluca Bufo, on the back of a strategy of enhancing the value of internal professionals that has also brought Giovanni Gazza to the role of CFO, will allow us to run even faster towards the achievement of the Plan’s targets, thanks to his vast knowledge of the Iren ‘machine’ and of our reference territories. Our best wishes for a good job to Gianluca Bufo and to all of us’.
